Professional Development Program July - December 2010

Courses to benefit all ADR Practitioners

- ✓ CRS professional development sessions cover a range of topics to provide professional development opportunities to those who utilize and practice dispute resolution.
- ✓ Practitioners can expand on existing practice and knowledge with current information in order to achieve exceptional outcomes for clients.
- ✓ With lively discussions on theory and practice with industry peers, sessions are an excellent forum for sharing experiences and gaining new insights.
- ✓ Practical exercises allow participants to develop new skills or refine established techniques.
- ✓ Most courses comply with Family Law Professional Development.

Seminar Delivery

Seminars are delivered through a combination of theory and practice; depending on the seminar activities, role plays and reflective exercise are used throughout the interactive workshops.

Facilitators:

Qualified and experienced facilitators in mediation and related disciplines deliver the seminars bringing up-to-date theory and practice.

For biographies of presenters, please email: rachel@crs.org.au

Course Notes:

Notes & /or workbooks are supplied for most courses. Discussion notes from Supervision courses will be sent to participants shortly after the session.

Certificates:

Certificates of Attendance will be issued to all participants on request.

Compliance:

- ✓ National Mediator Accreditation Scheme
- ✓ Family Law Regulations for Family Dispute Resolution Practitioners
- ✓ Mediation Act 1997 (ACT)
- ✓ CRS Panel Mediator Accreditation

Location:

Unless otherwise stated, most sessions will be held at the CRS Office:

Level 3 Griffin Centre
20 Genge Street
Canberra City
