

Public Consultation

Do you want to have a say in the way Neighbourhood Disputes are dealt with in the A.C.T?

The Conflict Resolution Service is holding public consultations to hear your views on how best to address Neighbourhood Disputes within the ACT Community.

If you would like to share your experiences and ideas on how to “Better Prevent, Manage and Resolve Disputes between Neighbours” then come along to one of the following forums

WHO	WHEN	WHERE
Community Sector	Monday 23 August, 2:00pm to 4:30pm	Griffin Centre, 20 Genge St, Civic
Government Agencies	Tuesday 24 August, 9:30am to 12 noon	Griffin Centre
General Public	Monday 30 August, 6:00pm to 8:00pm Or Wednesday 1 September, 5:30pm – 7:30pm	Southern Cross Club, Tuggeranong Griffin Centre

For further information or to RSVP Contact Susan on Ph: 6162 4050 or Email projects@crs.org.au

Do you have a dispute you can't resolve?...

...We get you talking!

healthy neighbourhoods

A program funded by ACT Department of Justice and Community Safety

Conflict Resolution Service

- Preventing, managing and resolving neighbourhood disputes
- Information about your rights and responsibilities as a neighbour
- Contact details of agencies and organisations that can help with issues